	admission or dismissal of pupils, promotion decisions, examination decisions or disciplinary measures, must first be lodged with the school. Only if the school does not remedy the objection can an objection be submitted to the State Education Authority as the school supervisory authority. If the state education authority rejects the objection, a written complaint can be lodged with the competent administrative court.
Kurztext	Pupils receive a school report at the end of the school year or the relevant stage of their education and when they leave the school. As a rule, half-year reports are also issued. Certificates are used to assess achievements and award qualifications or entitlements. Pupils who leave school without a qualification receive a leaving certificate for the last school year attended.
Ansprechpunkt
Zuständige Stelle	The school that you or your child currently attend issues a certificate. If you wish to lodge a complaint about grades in lessons or on the report card, first contact the subject teacher or, if necessary, the school management.
