Teaser	As an older person, you can apply for a senior citizens' pass in some municipalities. This helps you to participate in cultural and sporting activities or educational programs.
Volltext	The senior citizens' pass is offered by some local authorities as a voluntary service for older residents. The senior citizens' pass helps you to participate in social life. For example, with the Senior Citizens' Pass you can receive discounts on admission fees and contributions to public facilities such as libraries, music schools, zoos etc.. Sports activities, lectures, training courses and excursions can also be supported. The exact discounts and benefits may vary from municipality to municipality. The aim of the senior citizens' pass is to make it easier or possible for older citizens to maintain contact with their peers and actively participate in social life. The senior citizens' pass is a voluntary service that is not offered by every local authority. You can apply for it in the town or municipality where you have your main residence. Depending on the municipality, you can apply at the social welfare office, family office or citizens' center, for example.
