Teaser	If you move out of your home permanently, you must deregister if you are not moving into another home in Germany. You can find out more here.
Volltext	If you move out of an apartment and do not move into another apartment in Germany, you must deregister. The most important cases are deregistering a secondary residence or moving abroad. If you move within Germany, you do not have to deregister. It is sufficient to register with your new municipality.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	The following documents are required: • Identity documents of all persons to be deregistered
Voraussetzungen	The following requirements must be met: • permanent departure from the main residence without moving into a new main residence in Germany or • definitive abandonment of the secondary residence. In the case of persons under the age of 16, care must be taken to ensure that they are deregistered by the person from whose home they are moving out.
Kosten	none
