Teaser	If a current tenancy of subsidized housing is terminated, this must be reported / notified. If you want to rent out subsidized housing, leave it empty for longer than three months or let it be occupied by other households entitled to rent it, you will need permission to do so. This is granted under certain conditions.
Volltext	Permission to leave a property vacant for longer than three months can be granted for two reasons. Firstly, if extensive refurbishment or modernization is to be carried out beyond the three-month period and secondly, if it is not possible to let the property and a release from occupancy restrictions would not lead to letting. Permission for the use of the living space by households entitled to rented accommodation can only be granted if there is an overriding public or
