state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland, you may also provide legal advice in the area of EU law and the law of the EEA.

If you are registered with the competent authority with a foreign legal qualification pursuant to Section 10 (1) No. 3 RDG, you may provide extrajudicial legal services in the respective foreign law.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Application for registration in accordance with the Legal Services Act
- Documents proving your theoretical and practical expertise
- a summary of your training and the exercise of your profession to date
- a certificate of good conduct in accordance with § 30 para. 5 BZRG

If the personal suitability and reliability as well as the theoretical and practical expertise are available, the registration authority will ask you for proof of professional liability insurance.

Voraussetzungen

Prerequisite for registration pursuant to § 10 para. 1 no. 3 RDG

- Personal suitability and reliability
- Completion of professional liability insurance
- Proof of special theoretical and practical expertise in the relevant foreign law, Section 12 (1) No. 2 RDG.
- Required expertise: You are or were legally established as a lawyer or in a comparable legal profession in the respective country. You must prove this by means of a corresponding certificate from the authorities in your country of origin, Section 2 (3) sentence 1, Section 3 (2) RDV. In addition, you can also provide proof of theoretical expertise by means of a degree certificate from a foreign university for a three-year course of study with predominantly legal content, Section 2 (3) sentence 2 RDV. You can also provide evidence of practical expertise in the form of certificates of at least two years of supervised professional practice or practical professional training, Section 3 (1) sentence 2 RDV.
