compares your professional qualification from abroad with the German professional qualification and checks the equivalence. The equivalence of the professional qualification is an important prerequisite for the granting of the state permit. In addition to the equivalence of the professional qualification, you must also meet other requirements for the granting of the permit. Other requirements include, for example, sufficient German language skills and health suitability. If your professional qualification is automatically recognized, other regulations apply.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

The responsible office will tell you which documents you need to submit. Important documents are generally

- Proof of identity (identity card or passport)
- Marriage certificate (if your name has changed due to marriage)
- Curriculum vitae
- Proof of your professional qualifications (e.g. certificates, professional certificate)
- Proof of training
- Proof of your relevant professional experience as a midwife
- Proof of other relevant knowledge for working as a midwife
- Perhaps: You come from a third country and do not yet live or work in the EU, EEA or Switzerland? Then you must provide proof: You want to work in the profession in Germany. Proof can be, for example, an application for an entry visa for gainful employment, job applications, invitations to job interviews or a location note from the Central Service Center for Professional Recognition (ZSBA).

You usually hand in these documents later. The responsible office will inform you when you should hand in the documents:

- Proof of your personal suitability: criminal record extract or certificate of good conduct from your country of origin.
- Proof of your health suitability: Medical certificate
- Proof of your German language skills: Language certificate

The responsible office will let you know which documents you need to submit as a simple copy, a

| Voraussetzungen  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• You have a professional qualification as a midwife from abroad.</li> <li>• In order to obtain a state permit, the equivalence of your professional qualification must be checked.</li> <li>• You want to work as a midwife in Germany.</li> <li>• Personal suitability: You are reliable to work as a midwife and have no criminal record.</li> <li>• Health suitability: You are mentally and physically fit to work as a midwife.</li> <li>• You have German language skills at the required level. This is normally language level B2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).</li> </ul>   |
| Kosten           | The responsible office will inform you of the costs. The costs generally depend on the time and effort required for processing. Additional costs may be incurred (e.g. for translations or notarizations). These costs vary from case to case.   |
| Verfahrensablauf | You submit an application for permission to use the professional title "midwife" to the competent authority. The competent authority will then check whether you meet all the requirements. An important requirement is the equivalence of your professional qualification. The competent authority will compare your professional qualification with the German professional qualification as a midwife. The professional qualification is equivalent if there are no significant differences between your professional qualification and the German professional qualification. Note: If your professional qualification is automatically recognized, the competent authority will not carry out an equivalence check. This is a different procedure. The competent authority will inform you. If your foreign professional qualification is equivalent, it will be recognized. The competent authority can confirm the result in writing. You must still meet the other requirements. You will then receive permission to use the professional title "midwife". Are there any significant differences between your professional qualification and the German professional | qualification? You may be able to compensate for the differences through your professional experience, other knowledge or skills (lifelong learning). Knowledge and skills must be certified by an authority in the country in which you acquired the knowledge or skills. However, it may be that the significant differences cannot be compensated for by your professional experience, knowledge or skills. In this case, the competent authority will inform you of the significant differences between your professional qualification and the German professional qualification and why you cannot compensate for these significant differences with your professional experience or your knowledge and skills.

The competent authority will also tell you what compensatory measures you can take to offset the significant differences.

There are various compensation measures:

- Adaptation course: The adaptation course lasts a maximum of 3 years.
- Aptitude test: The aptitude test consists of a practical examination combined with an interview.
- Knowledge examination for professional qualifications from a third country: The knowledge examination tests your knowledge in certain subjects and areas. The knowledge test comprises an oral and a practical part.

The competent authority will inform you whether you have to take one or more compensatory measures and whether you can choose which of the compensatory measures you take. This depends on the level of your training.

If you successfully complete the compensatory measure and meet all other requirements, you will receive permission to use the professional title "midwife".

Bearbeitungsdauer
