Teaser	You are only a student once you have enrolled. Find out more about the requirements.
Volltext	When you enrol, you become a member of the university. If you apply to study at a university and meet all the requirements for admission, you will be enrolled. There is a general requirement for studying - the university entrance qualification. This is, for example, a high school diploma or other school qualification. In addition, each university determines the other requirements for each subject. These are, for example, a numerus clausus (NC) and a passed aptitude test. The certificate of enrolment is proof that you are a student at a university. You will usually also receive a student ID card with your enrolment certificate, which can also be used as proof.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Before you are enrolled, you must first apply for a degree course. When you apply, you must submit a number of documents that are also important for enrollment. Important documents are <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certificate of higher education entrance qualification or comparable qualification • Identity card or passport • Proof of health insurance • Proof that you have paid all semester fees and tuition fees • Passport photo • Certificate of exmatriculation, if applicable
