Sachverhalt

As an employer, you are legally obliged to submit your income tax declaration electronically.

You can only submit the income tax declaration authenticated with an electronic certificate. You will receive the certificate if you have registered with My ELSTER. Please note that registration can take up to 2 weeks.

Only in exceptional cases can your competent tax office waive an electronic transmission of the wage tax declaration upon application (so-called hardship regulation). If you are granted an exemption, you must submit the income tax declaration on an officially prescribed form.

In order to avoid queries from the tax office, please always enter the number of your employees in the field provided for this purpose in the wage tax registration.

If you discover that an already transmitted/submitted wage tax declaration is incorrect or incomplete, you must submit / submit a corrected income tax declaration for the relevant registration period. Entries must also be made in the lines in which no changes have occurred.

Erforderliche Unterlagen	In principle, no documents are required.
Voraussetzungen	You employ employees and have registered as an employer with your local tax office.
