Volltext	If you want to be self-employed in travel trade, you need a travel trade card. You operate a travel trade if you are active as a showman, "flying trader" or owner of a market stall, i.e. if you offer your services or goods at constantly changing locations. According to Section 55 of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act (Gewerbeordnung), a travelling trade is carried out by anyone who, for commercial purposes, without a prior appointment outside his or her place of business (Section 4(3) of the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act (Gewerbeordnung)) or without having such a place of business • offers goods for sale or seeks out (sells) or purchases orders, • offers services or seeks orders for services or • performs entertainment activities as a showman or in the manner of a showman. The content of the travel trade permit may be restricted, it may be issued for a limited period of time and it may be subject to conditions, insofar as this is necessary for the protection of the general public or consumers; under the same conditions, the subsequent inclusion, amendment and
