Verfahrensablauf

You first apply for recognition as a training organiser to your local Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK).

- The IHK first examines the submitted documents such as curricula and teaching materials.
 - If necessary, representatives of the Chamber of Industry and Commerce visit the teaching institution and check its suitability on site. If necessary, assessment interviews with the teaching staff take place.
 - After examination of documents and teaching venue, you will receive a notification of recognition from the Chamber of Industry and Commerce.

After your training facility has been recognized, you may offer courses for dangerous goods officers within the scope of the permit.
