Sachverhalt

The documents and information must always be submitted in German. In individual cases, the Foreigners' Registration Office may require less or further proof.

Voraussetzungen

- You are a citizen of a country outside the EU or the EEA.
- You are the spouse or partner of a German citizen.
- You and your spouse or partner are at least 18 years of age.
- Your German spouse or partner has his habitual residence in Germany (i.e. his or her centre of life is not only temporarily in Germany).
- Your marriage/civil partnership with the German citizen has been validly concluded and still exists.

Please note : The validity of the marriage depends on the form specified at the place of the marriage and the conditions for the marriage there. The marriage ceases to exist if it has been dissolved, annulled or declared invalid by a final decision of a competent body.

- You have a family cohabitation with your spouse/partner (e.g. shared apartment). If there is no cohabitation in a common apartment, the assumption of a family cohabitation is considered if you maintain regular contact with each other that goes beyond mere visits.

- You can communicate at least in a simple way in German (level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). This can be waived if there are no German courses offered in your country of origin, they are too expensive or you cannot attend them for other reasons.

Please note : under certain circumstances, the Foreigners' Registration Office may oblige you to participate in an integration course. This will then be noted on your residence permit.
