Teaser	If you need to present a German death certificate in another European country, you can apply for the issuance of a multilingual form at the registry office.
Volltext	The death certificate is a document that certifies the death of a person. Any death must be reported to the registry office in whose jurisdiction the death occurred. You can apply for the death certificate as a family member in the event of death. You can submit the application as soon as the death has been recorded in the death register. The death certificate is important, for example, for: • burial and its preparation, for example for coffin and transfer, • the settlement of the estate as well as • the use of statutory or private insurance benefits. You can apply for the death certificate at the responsible registry office. However, it may happen that you have to present a German death certificate in another European country. In this case, you can apply for a multilingual form at the registry office. The form replaces the translation of the German death certificate, which is generally required.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- for close relatives:
 - Proof of kinship, such as
 - Birth certificate
 - Marriage certificate
 - Civil partnership certificate
 - ID card or passport
- for siblings of the deceased person:
 - Proof of the relationship
 - Proof of legitimate interest, such as family or genealogy research
 - ID card or passport
- in case of collection by a representative:
 - written power of attorney of the entitled person
 - their identity card or passport and
