Sachverhalt

- Proof of securing one's livelihood (for example, proof of income, pension notice, proof of receipt of benefits such as parental or child benefit, alimony payments). Please note: Proof of subsistence can also be provided by third parties (e.g. spouses, registered partners, parents).
- Proof of health insurance coverage (for example, confirmation of health insurance coverage or insurance policy)
- Proof of knowledge of the German language at least at level B1 (e.g. language certificate, German school, training or university certificates, certificate of successful participation in the integration course) Please note: If there is an illness or disability that prevents the acquisition of language skills, this must be proven in an appropriate form (for example, specialist opinion, proof of institutionalization)
- In the case of a third-country national parent of a German child: birth certificate of the child, proof of personal custody
- For spouses or registered partners: marriage certificate/civil partnership certificate

The documents and information must always be submitted in German. In individual cases, the Foreigners' Registration Office may require less or further proof.

Kosten	Cost amount (fixed): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • EUR 56.50 for underage applicants • 113,00 for adult applicants Remark: Additional fees may apply for the issuance of the settlement permit in the form of an electronic residence title (eAT card), which can also be used as an electronic proof of identity. Lower fees may apply for Turkish nationals.
Verfahrensablauf	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The settlement permit must be applied for before the validity of your current residence permit expires. • If you have not yet reached the age of 18, you may not submit the application yourself, but need a representative (usually the application is made by the parents with custody). • Find out whether your immigration authority allows you to submit your application online or has a special application form. • If the application is only possible in person, make an appointment at the Foreigners' Registration Office. In the case of an online application, the Foreigners' Registration Office will contact you upon receipt of your application to make an appointment. • If you have not yet reached the age of 18, you must be accompanied by at least one legal representative (usually one parent) during the personal interview. In the case of joint custody, the parents must appear together at the authority and jointly submit the application for you. If one parent is unable to appear in person, the other parent with custody must be issued with a written power of attorney for the application. • During the appointment, your identity and documents will be checked (please bring your documents, preferably original, to the appointment). • If your request is granted, your fingerprints will be taken for the production of a new electronic residence title (eAT card). • The Foreigners' Registration Office commissions
