Teaser	Does your surveying project extend over a long distance? Then apply for a survey of an elongated system.
Volltext	Elongated facilities are for example: • Bicycle paths and sidewalks, • roads, • dikes, • watercourses. These facilities must also be surveyed. The survey is usually commissioned by • the federal government, • states, • cities, • municipalities and • associations as part of infrastructure measures. The real estate register is checked along the planned route in advance of the measure. After the construction of a facility, the new parcels are created. Necessary ownership regulations can then be carried out.
