complaint and examines it. If you file a complaint of a crime committed outside Germany or in another federal state, the prosecution authority will send the report to the competent authority.

Only if no investigative approaches are available will the investigation be discontinued by the public prosecutor's office. The chances of success differ depending on the type of crime. Basically, the more information you provide, the higher the chances that the police will find the perpetrator.

Anyone who knowingly and falsely suspects a person commits a crime. The law provides for a fine or imprisonment of up to five years.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Upon receipt of the online advertisement, you will receive an email confirmation with a transaction number. The processing time depends on various factors. It is not possible to limit the time.

Frist

A deadline is not to be met. However, you should pay attention to the respective limitation periods, because as a rule, criminal offenses usually become statute-barred after a certain period of time.

Hinweise

If you file a complaint, you are basically a witness in the criminal proceedings. It may be necessary to summon you to the relevant police station as part of the further processing of your complaint, for example in order to be able to conduct a witness examination with you personally.

Anyone who has knowledge of a criminal offence but does not report it can be liable to prosecution. There are no special formal requirements. Caution should be exercised if it is a suspected crime. Defamation and false suspicion are punishable by law, and the person who files the complaint must expect legal action against him. Crimes such as murder, robbery, war crimes and high treason are subject to reporting.

A criminal complaint cannot be withdrawn. You should
