Sachverhalt

This applies to

- hazardous waste
- non-hazardous waste containing POPs

You or your company are also subject to the obligation to register if you

- broker or trade in hazardous waste or
- dispose of non-hazardous waste as an operator of facilities.

You can apply for exemption from the obligation to keep records or register.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Application
- Reasons why an exemption from verification or register obligations should be granted in a specific individual case

Voraussetzungen

Whether an exemption from verification or registration obligations can be granted is a discretionary decision by the competent authority.

You or your company can only be granted this exemption if there is no reason to fear any detriment to the public interest. In principle, there is a great public interest in keeping records and registers. The authority will therefore check whether your application does not conflict with this interest.

Kosten

Verwaltungsgebühr: 50€ - 400€
 Administrative fee: The amount of the fee depends on the specific individual case.

Verfahrensablauf

- You or your company can submit the application for exemption from verification or registration obligations in writing (informally) to the competent authority. Alternatively, you can use the eBNUR online service. Enclose all information necessary for the assessment of the facts with the application.
- The competent authority will process your application and decide whether an exemption can be considered.
- You will be notified of the authority's decision.
