Teaser	If you carry out activities involving pathogens, you must notify the competent authority immediately of any changes that occur.
Volltext	You have already received a permit to work with pathogens and have notified the competent authority that you are taking up this activity for the first time. You must notify the competent authority immediately if you: • make significant changes such as the type and scope of the activity, the nature of the rooms and facilities or disposal measures, • terminate the activity with pathogens, or • resume the activity with pathogens. Even if you are exempt from the permit requirement, you must report any changes to your activity. Persons who carry out microbiological tests for diagnostic purposes on their own patients are exempt from the permit requirement. These are, for example • Doctors, • dentists and • veterinarians. If you work under the supervision of a person who • has a license or
