Verfahrensablauf

You apply for a replacement registration certificate part II from your registration authority.

The registration authority reports the loss or theft of the registration certificate part II to the Federal Motor Transport Authority (KBA). Upon request, the KBA publishes the lost registration certificate part II in the Verkehrsblatt (traffic bulletin) with a deadline for submission to the responsible registration authority. The registration authority may only issue a replacement document after the deadline has expired. You can then collect the new registration documents.

Modul	Sachverhalt
