Volltext	If you receive unemployment benefit or citizen's allowance, you are obliged to inform your competent office immediately and without being asked of any changes to your personal data and circumstances. Note: If you receive unemployment benefit and citizen's allowance (as a so-called "top-up"), you must inform both the employment agency and the job centre of the changes. Use our online services to do this. You will need to register for this. If you do not have a user account with the Federal Employment Agency, you can create one.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Notification of change • evidence of the changes, if applicable
Voraussetzungen	You must inform the responsible office immediately if there are any changes in your life, your home, your income, your employment or self-employment, or your marital status. Advice: • When taking up employment, you should not rely on any promises made by others that they will take over the notification. You are only obliged to do this
