Sachverhalt

Examination and authorisation

- The Land returning officer shall invite the parties that have notified their participation in the election to the meeting at which a decision is made on their recognition as a party for the election. He submits the notifications of participation to the State Electoral Committee and reports on the result of the preliminary examination.
- Before the decision is made, the parties involved are given the opportunity to comment.
- The state electoral committee determines with binding effect for all electoral bodies
 - which parties are represented in parliament,
 - the parties for which the Federal Electoral Committee established party status at the last election to the German Bundestag,
 - which associations that have notified their participation are to be recognised as parties for the election.

Announcement

- Following the determination, the Land returning officer announces the decision of the Land electoral committee at the meeting and briefly states the reasons. The decision is made public.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Frist

- Receipt of the notification of voter participation (with all required information and documents): no later than the 90th day before the election by 6:00 p.m. at the state election officer
- Determination by the state electoral committee as to which association is recognised as a party: no later than the 72nd day before the election
