Sachverhalt

(sometimes in several copies)

- one or, if applicable, several recent passport photos (please note the format requirements)
- a passport, which must often be valid for a certain period of time beyond the planned trip
- an invitation or other documents proving the purpose of stay and the financing of the stay
- proof of payment of consular fees

Note: Please enquire at the diplomatic mission or consular post of the country concerned about exactly which documents and applications you need to submit and, if applicable, where you can obtain the application forms.

Voraussetzungen

To obtain a visa, you usually need to prove:

- Purpose of the trip
- Financing of the stay including health insurance cover
- Willingness and possibility to return to Germany

Note: The details vary from country to country. Legally binding information can therefore only be given to you by the diplomatic mission or consular post of the respective country.

Kosten

Fees vary (depending on visa type, duration and purpose of stay, number of entries and processing effort)

Verfahrensablauf

Depending on the country of destination, you can apply for and hand over documents in person or by post, in some countries also via the internet. However, the exact procedure depends on the regulations of the respective country. Therefore, please enquire at the diplomatic mission or consular post of the country concerned.

Note: Special application requirements may mean more work for you. For example, some countries require the personal presence of the applicant or photos in a certain format, which is unusual in Germany and therefore more difficult to obtain.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Sachverhalt

Frist

The processing time also depends strongly on the country-specific requirements. Typically, it takes about 14 days, but processing can also take considerably longer. You should contact the relevant diplomatic mission or consular post of your destination country as early as possible to find out what processing times you should expect. If a personal appointment at the mission abroad is necessary, this may involve a lead time of several weeks. Some countries offer priority application processing for a fee, which shortens the process.
