Volltext	Tax deduction of childcare costs You can claim expenses for the care of your child who is under the age of 14 or who is unable to support themselves due to a disability and who lives with you as special expenses for tax purposes. From 2025, the tax office will take into account up to 80 per cent of expenses (maximum annual amount of EUR 4,800 per child). Until 2024, a maximum of two thirds of the expenses (maximum EUR 4,000 per child per year) could be recognised. Childcare costs include, for example, expenses for accommodation in a kindergarten, a daycare centre, a crèche or a childminder, as well as the costs of domestic help if they look after the child. In order to deduct the costs, you must have received an invoice for the expenses and payment must have been made by bank transfer to the carer's account. If your child attends a kindergarten or after-school care centre, the fee notice is considered an invoice. The tax office cannot recognise cash payments. Please note: Expenses for the child's meals, for any type of tuition (including private tuition), for teaching special skills (such as typing or computer courses) and for sports and other leisure activities are not recognised.

Verfahrensablauf	Consideration in the context of the income tax return <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you want to claim childcare costs for tax purposes, you must submit the "child annex" with your income tax return (a separate annex for each child). • On the basis of this information, the tax office will determine whether and to what extent deductible expenses exist and will then take these into account in the tax assessment. The tax assessment notice contains corresponding comments. Application for income tax reduction (tax-free amount) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By entering an allowance in the electronic wage tax deduction features (ELStAM), childcare costs can have a positive effect on employees' wage tax deductions during the course of the calendar year. To do this, you must submit an application for wage tax reduction to the tax office. • Submit the completed application form to the tax office together with the relevant supporting documents.

- The tax office will check the amount of the tax-free allowance that can be entered in the electronic wage tax deduction features (ELStAM) (if necessary, this will be amended accordingly).
- Employers are provided with the amended ELStAM with the corresponding validity information in the electronic procedure for retrieval.
- If you would like a printout of your ELStAM, please note this on the application form. You can also view your own ELStAM after registering free of charge at www.elster.de.

Tip: As an electronic alternative to the paper form, applications can also be submitted in the online tax office "My ELSTER" or with offers from other software manufacturers.

Note: The tax office staff can only enter an allowance if the total deductible care costs are higher than EUR 600.00 (together with any income-related expenses, special expenses, extraordinary expenses and similar that can be entered).
