Volltext	Application for a Licence in accordance with section 33i Gewerbeordnung (GewO) A licence is required by anyone wishing to operate an amusement arcade or similar business exclusively or predominantly for the following purposes: • Installation of gaming machines with the possibility of winning and / or • organising other games with cash prizes The licence is tied to a specific person, specific premises and a specific type of operation (gaming arcade or similar business). Any change relating to this (e.g. change of owner* or relocation) requires a new licence. In individual cases, the licence may be issued with a time limit or be subject to conditions. The permitted number of gaming devices depends on the size of the arcade. In addition to the Gewerbeordnung, some provisions of the State Treaty on Gambling in Germany (Glücksspielstaatsvertrag - GlüStV) of 15 December 2011 and the regulations created for amusement arcades in the Sächsisches Ausführungsgesetz zum

Sachverhalt

Glücksspielstaatsvertrag (SächsGlüStVAG) have applied to amusement arcades since 1 July 2012, insofar as they have cash or gaming machines with the possibility of winning. In particular, the operation of an arcade also requires a gambling licence pursuant to Section 18a (1) sentence 1 SächsGlüStVAG in conjunction with Section 24 GlüStV, irrespective of the licence pursuant to Section 33i GewO.

For information on gambling law requirements (e.g. obligations to submit a social concept, staff training, information on addiction risks and the required minimum distance to other gaming arcades or general education schools), please contact the Landesdirektion Sachsen, Leipzig office, Department 24 as the supervisory authority responsible for gambling law requirements.

Please note: In order to operate an arcade, you also require an installation licence (i.e. a permit to install gaming devices) and a confirmation of suitability (i.e. official confirmation that the specific installation location of the respective gaming device complies with the applicable regulations). Please contact the responsible department for details.
