Sachverhalt

- Whit Monday
- Corpus Christi (only in the regions determined by the Saxon State Ministry of the Interior by legal ordinance)
- German Unity Day (October 3)
- Reformation Day (October 31)
- Day of Prayer and Repentance
- Christmas Day (December 25)
- 2nd Christmas Day (December 26)

Days of remembrance and mourning

In Saxony, these are Volkstrauertag (penultimate Sunday before the 1st Advent) and Totensonntag (last Sunday before the 1st Advent).

Religious holidays in Saxony:

- Feast of the Epiphany (Jan. 6)
- Spring Penance Day (7th Wednesday before Easter)
- Maundy Thursday
- Corpus Christi (if not a public holiday)
- St. John's Day (June 24)
- St. Peter and St. Paul (June 29)
- Assumption Day (August 15)
- All Saints' Day (November 1)
- Immaculate Conception (December 8)

Sundays and public holidays are specially protected by law as days of rest from work and spiritual upliftment. Therefore, publicly noticeable work and other actions that are likely to interfere with the rest of the day are prohibited on Sundays and public holidays, unless otherwise provided by law or on the basis of a law. Statutory exemption regulations can be found in particular in the Trade, Commerce and Industry Regulation Act (Gewerbeordnung), the Shop Closing Hours Act (Gesetz über den Ladenschluss) and the Working Hours Act (Arbeitszeitgesetz).

Note: Exemption from this prohibition may be granted in individual cases if there is good cause.

This prohibition does not apply to

- the operation of postal services, railroads and other enterprises serving the transport of passengers, as well as auxiliary transport facilities, with the proviso that repair work on motor vehicles may only be carried out insofar as it is necessary for the continuation of the journey

- work which cannot be postponed and which is necessary to prevent damage to health or property to satisfy domestic needs in agricultural operations, in particular for harvesting to process perishable foodstuffs and to supply the population with milk
- light work of a non-commercial nature in gardens, which does not cause disturbing noise
- the operation of video stores on Sundays between 12:00 and 20:00 hours
- the operation of car washes: fully automatic car washes of a covered type operated jointly with service stations, on Sundays 8:00 to 20:00 self-service car washes with high-pressure cleaners, Sundays 12:00 to 20:00 car wash facilities and self-wash facilities with high-pressure cleaners in commercial areas, Sundays 12:00 to 20:00

On Sundays, public holidays (exceptions: May 1 and October 3) and religious holidays, actions that are likely to disturb religious events must be refrained from in the vicinity of churches and other buildings that serve religious purposes. The same applies on December 24 for the time after 14:00.

Note: No exemption from this prohibition may be granted.

Furthermore, on Good Friday, the Day of Prayer and Repentance, and the Days of Remembrance and Mourning, public dancing and other public entertainment contrary to the serious character of these days, as well as public sports events, shall be prohibited at the times specified by law.

Note: Exemption from this prohibition may be granted in individual cases if there is an important reason.
