| Verfahrensablauf | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Either you are proposed to the court by the youth welfare office (Jugendamt) or you make this proposal yourself in court. In the latter case, the youth welfare office must then give an opinion on this proposal. • The court decides on your application, taking into account the best interests of the child, and appoints you as carer or guardian. With a handshake on oath, the judge obliges the guardian to fulfil his or her duties conscientiously. • When deciding on a change of custody, the following parties must be heard: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the youth welfare office • the natural parents (if they still have custody) • the child, if he or she is older than 14 years (As a general rule, the older the child, the more weighty his or her opinion) • the foster parents |
