In Sachsen, the tax amounts 5.5 per cent of the assessment basis, which corresponds to the consideration paid by the purchaser of the property. In the case of a purchase, this is the purchase price, but other services, such as the assumption of mortgages on the property, also count towards this. If the construction of a house was agreed together with the purchase of the land, the construction costs for the construction can also be added to the assessment basis.
