Attention! Personal information from the debtor register may only be used for the following purposes:

- for enforcement proceedings
- to fulfil legal obligations to check economic reliability
- to check the requirements for the granting of public benefits
- to avert economic disadvantages that may result from debtors failing to fulfil their payment obligations
- for the purposes of criminal prosecution and the enforcement of sentences

The copies may only ever be used for the purpose for which they were transmitted, must be treated confidentially and may not be made accessible to third parties. The impressions must be destroyed immediately after the end of the current reference.

Authorisation to obtain copies from the debtor register on an ongoing basis is not transferable.

Hinweise ### Debtor directories before 01.01.2013

Like the other provisions on the debtor register, the regulations on the issuing of copies were revised when the Act on the Reform of Factual Clarification in Enforcement came into force on 1 January 2013. Entries from the debtor register under the old law are not transferred to the new debtor register.

The President of the local court at which the debtor register is kept can continue to authorise the ongoing retrieval of copies from the previous debtor registers.
