Volltext	If you set up a limited partnership (KG), you are obliged to register it in the commercial register. The KG only comes into existence and has full legal capacity once it has been registered. The registration of a KG that is already operating a commercial business, on the other hand, is only legally confirmatory, as the company already exists prior to registration. It should be noted, however, that the limited partner is generally liable without limitation for liabilities of the limited partnership established prior to registration if the limited partnership has already commenced business with the consent of the limited partner prior to registration. Erforderliche Unterlagen

- the name of the company and the place where it has its registered office, as well as the domestic business address
- the power of representation of the partners
- all limited partners and the amount of the contribution of each of them
- The registration must also indicate the location of the business premises, which differs from the domestic business address, and the object of the company, if this is not apparent from the company name.

Note: There are often several weeks between drawing up the articles of association and entry in the commercial register. You should therefore check that the articles of association are up to date before registering.
