Volltext	Guests from certain countries require a visa for their stay in Germany, which they must apply for. For this purpose, it is usually necessary for the guest to present a declaration of commitment from the host. If you would like to submit such a declaration, you should observe the following instructions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By submitting the declaration, you commit yourself to the foreigner's authority or a foreign mission to bear the costs for the living expenses of a foreigner. This also includes the expenses for accommodation as well as for care in case of illness or need for care. • If your guest is forced to return home, you are also obliged to bear the costs incurred. Attention! This obligation is in principle irrevocable and applies for a period of up to five years from the guest's entry. The obligation continues to apply within this period even if the guest's asylum application is successful or a residence title is granted for reasons of international law, humanitarian or political reasons.
