shall be carried out under joint lock and key by the Rechtspfleger and the clerk of the court registry.

Wills in official custody registered centrally

Since 01.01.2012, all documents in official custody must be registered in the Central Register of Wills, which is kept by the Federal Chamber of Notaries. This ensures that they can be found and opened quickly in the event of an inheritance.

Issue of the certificate of deposit

You will be issued with a certificate of deposit for safekeeping. If you deposit a joint will, the other testator will also receive a certificate of deposit.

Return

You can ask for your will to be returned from the special official custody at any time, for example to change it. The will may only be returned to you personally; a joint will may only be returned to you and your other testator jointly.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Frist Custody period: up to 30 years

weiterführende Informationen

Hinweise If a will has been in official custody for more than 30 years, the custodian office determines ex officio whether the testator is still alive. If this is not the case, the disposition of property upon death is opened.
