- a tax-privileged association

for the promotion of charitable, benevolent or ecclesiastical purposes.

In the case of tax-privileged associations, it is to be assumed that the activity also serves the promotion of these tax-privileged purposes. Accordingly, the tax exemption is also granted if the activity is carried out within the framework of a special purpose business.

The tax exemption does not apply to an activity in a taxable commercial business.

Note: A part-time activity may not take up more than one third of a comparable full-time occupation.

Claiming the honorary and exercise leader lump-sum allowance

You can only claim the lump-sum allowance for voluntary work and the lump-sum allowance for training supervisors if they are two different activities (with the same or different corporate bodies). These activities must

- be carried out on a part-time basis,
- be separable from each other,
- be separately remunerated,
- be clearly regulated and
- actually be carried out.

Kosten

none

Verfahrensablauf

You can claim the flat-rate allowance for exercise leaders in your income tax return.
