will not receive a separate notification.

If a local authority acts as an organiser and the requirements of the AELott are fulfilled, the event must also only be notified to the Saxony State Directorate, Leipzig Office (upper gaming supervisory authority).

Regional authorities, commercial enterprises, commercial associations and commercial operators at their registered offices or at the registered offices of branch offices may only organise a small lottery or draw in accordance with the requirements of the General Licence for Small Lotteries and Draws in the Free State of Saxony (AELott). As a rule, a permit under gambling law cannot be granted to territorial authorities, commercial associations and tradesmen, as the prerequisite for the granting of an individual permit is recognised non-profit status (Section 14 (1) no. 1 GlüStV 2021).

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Form for the notification of a public lottery or draw in accordance with the AELott
- current extract from the register of associations
- Copy of the statutes
- last notice of exemption from the tax office (as proof of non-profit status)
- Winning plan (list of all winnings with values)

Voraussetzungen

The General Permit for Small Lotteries and Raffles in the Free State of Saxony (AELott) applies to events that meet the following requirements:

- The event does not extend beyond the territory of a district or an independent city.
- The net proceeds (total value of the tickets minus the costs incurred by the lottery) amount to at least one third of the fees to be paid for the purchase of all tickets.
- The sum of the winnings in lotteries or the value of the prizes in kind or other pecuniary advantages in lotteries shall amount to at least 25 per cent of the fees.
- The proceeds from the sale of all tickets shall not exceed EUR 40,000.
- The ticket sale shall not last longer than three
