Volltext	Housing provider confirmation according to § 19 Bundesmeldegesetz (BMG) When you move into a new apartment/house, you need a confirmation from your housing provider that you have moved in. You must present this to the registration office when you register. The housing provider is usually the owner of the apartment/house. However, it can also be the property management company commissioned by the owner or, if you are living as a subtenant, the main tenant of the apartment/house. The housing provider confirmation must contain the following information: • Name and address of the housing provider • Name of the owner (if the owner is not the housing provider) • Address of the apartment/house • Names of all persons moving into the apartment/house and are thus subject to registration, or names of all persons moving out of an apartment/house • Date of moving in or out
