Volltext	In many cities and municipalities, you can apply for a special allowance after the birth of a child. It is not infrequently tied to the fact that you can provide evidence of the preventive medical examinations for your baby. These examinations bring paediatricians into the system and make them aware of any abnormalities. The welcome gift is intended to be used for a special purchase and thus also for the benefit of the child. It is not intended as a subsidy for the costs of day-to-day living. It is a voluntary benefit; please ask your city or municipal administration for the amount.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Birth certificate of the child • Identity card of the legal guardian(s) • if applicable: proof of the relevant preventive medical examinations Which documents you have to submit in which form is usually stated on the application form.
Voraussetzungen	• Entitled to apply: Legal guardian of the newborn child • Residence of the legal guardian in the city or municipality • further requirements depending on the city or municipality (e.g. proof of preventive medical examinations)
Kosten	none
Verfahrensablauf	Depending on the regulations, you can apply for the grant in person, in writing or electronically. If available for your location, submit your application online via
