If you would like to work as a psychosocial trial counsellor in criminal proceedings in the Free State of Saxony, you must apply to the Sächsisches Staatsministerium der Justiz und für Demokratie, Europa und Gleichstellung to be recognised as a psychosocial trial counsellor.

Volltext

If you would like to work as a psychosocial trial counsellor in criminal proceedings in the Free State of Saxony, you must apply to the Sächsisches Staatsministerium der Justiz und für Demokratie, Europa und Gleichstellung to be recognised as a psychosocial trial counsellor.

If you have already been recognised as a psychosocial trial counsellor in another federal state, this is equivalent to recognition in the Free State of Saxony and you do not need to submit a separate application to work in Saxony.

Recognition is limited to five years in accordance with the provisions of the SächsPsychPbGAG. After that, a new application for recognition must be submitted.

Modul

Sachverhalt

There are five regional court districts in Saxony:

- Landgericht Chemnitz
- Landgericht Dresden
- Landgericht Görlitz
- Landgericht Leipzig
- Landgericht Zwickau

With the application, you specify in which of the five regional court districts of Saxony you wish to work ("örtlicher Tätigkeitsschwerpunkt"). The local centre of activity should not include more than three regional court districts. On the one hand, this is intended to ensure that, in the event of an assignment, the accompanist comes from the immediate vicinity, but on the other hand, the assignment in several regional court districts enables the court accompanists to focus on certain groups of victims or types of offences ("sachlicher Tätigkeitsschwerpunkt").

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Proof of professional suitability as a psychosocial trial counsellor, for example University degree certificates, Certificate of completed vocational training, Proof of two years of professional experience, Proof of completion of training or further training recognised by a country as a psychosocial trial counsellor, Proof of employment in a proven victim support organisation)
- Declaration of the psychosocial trial counsellor's local focus of activity
- Proof of personal reliability: extended certificate of good conduct

The Sächsisches Staatsministerium der Justiz und für Demokratie, Europa und Gleichstellung reserves the right to ask you to submit originals, certified copies or other suitable documents.

Voraussetzungen

Because professional support is important, high demands are placed on the skills of the person providing the support. The prerequisites are

- a university degree in social pedagogy, social work, education, psychology or a completed vocational training programme
- as a rule, at least two years of professional

Hinweise

Upon recognition, you are obliged under Section 1 (3) SächsPsychPbGAG to inform the Sächsisches Staatsministerium der Justiz und für Demokratie, Europa und Gleichstellung as the responsible department if one of the conditions for recognition is no longer met.

In accordance with Section 3 (3), (4) and (5) PsychPbG, you must continue to ensure on your own responsibility

- that you have the necessary personal qualifications. These include, in particular, counselling skills, communication and cooperation skills, the ability to deal with conflict, resilience and organisational skills,
- that you are aware of the assistance available locally for injured persons and
- undergo regular further training.
