Volltext	Would you like to operate a betting centre (betting office) in the Free State of Saxony? In addition to a business licence , a gambling permit is required for proper operation. Business registration and the issue of a confirmation of receipt do not authorise the brokerage of sports betting. The licence under gambling law to operate a betting agency (betting office) in the Free State of Saxony exists in parallel to the notification and approval requirements under commercial law, building law and, if applicable, other public law requirements and does not replace these. Further information and a white list of which operators already have a licence can be found on the website of the Joint Gambling Authority of the federal states. The licence to broker sports bets in betting agencies must be applied for at by the sports betting organiser with whom the sports betting brokers (wish to) cooperate.
