Modul
Sachverhalt

You can also apply for a German certificate of no impediment to marriage if you are a stateless person, a homeless foreigner or a foreign refugee within the meaning of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees with habitual residence in Germany and you require the certificate of no impediment to marriage for marriage abroad.

Furthermore, the same requirements must be met as when registering for marriage:

- You must both be of legal age.
- You must not be related to each other in a direct line or be full or half siblings.
- If you were already married or in a registered civil partnership, the previous marriage or civil partnership must have been dissolved.

Kosten

- Examination of the marriage requirements when issuing a certificate of no impediment to marriage if only German law applies: 44 euros
- Examination of the marriage requirements if foreign law is to be observed: 70-140 euros (depending on the effort involved)
- In individual cases, the fees may increase (inclusion of an application for recognition of a foreign decision in matrimonial matters for submission to the competent judicial authority or review of a foreign decision in matrimonial or civil partnership matters by the registry office: 30 euros)

Verfahrensablauf

- Find out from the foreign office where you are getting married whether a German certificate of no impediment to marriage is required.
- Apply to the relevant German registry office for a certificate of no impediment to marriage.
- The relevant registry office will advise you on the documents still required in individual cases.
- Submit all required documents to the registry office.
- If there are no obstacles to marriage, the registry office will issue the certificate of no impediment.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Depending on the individual case

Frist

The certificate of no impediment to marriage is valid for six months from the date of issue.
