homeless foreigner, a person entitled to asylum or a foreign refugee within the meaning of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees with habitual residence in Germany and you require the certificate of no impediment to marriage to get married abroad.

The certificate is issued by the registry office in whose jurisdiction the applicant has their place of residence or habitual abode.

Information on both spouses must always be provided in the certificate of no impediment to marriage, so that proof is also required from both fiancées.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Valid identity card or passport of the spouses
- Proof must be provided in the form of public documents:
 - the marital status
 - domicile or habitual residence
 - nationality and
 - where applicable, the last marriages and/or civil partnerships and their dissolution

The registry office may require further documents. Ask the registry office for advice in advance.

Voraussetzungen

You can apply for a German certificate of matrimonial capacity if you are a stateless person, a homeless foreigner, a person entitled to asylum or a foreign refugee within the meaning of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees with habitual residence in Germany and you need the certificate of matrimonial capacity to get married abroad.

Furthermore, the same requirements must be met as when registering for marriage:

- You must both be of legal age.
- You must not be related to each other in a direct line or be full or half siblings.
- If you were already married or in a registered civil partnership, the previous marriage or civil partnership must have been dissolved.
