Teaser	If you wish to practise a craft requiring a license and have a domestic professional qualification equivalent to the master craftsman's examination, you can be entered in the register of craftsmen on this basis.
Volltext	The Register of Craftsmen is a register in which all <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • natural persons • partnerships and • legal entities who operate a craft requiring a license as a standing trade. Itinerant trades and market trades do not count as standing trades. You can find a complete list of trades requiring a license in Appendix A of the Crafts Code (HwO). The trade does not have to be exercised as a whole, as the exercise of essential (partial) activities is also possible. Conversely, it is conceivable that several trades or essential activities of several trades are to be practiced.

Furthermore, the business manager who is responsible for the professional and technical management of the craft business and who has the necessary professional qualification to practice the craft requiring a license is entered in the Register of Craftsmen. Both the owners of craft businesses and employed persons are eligible as managers. Proof of qualification can be provided by submitting an industrial foreman certificate. The focus of the training must correspond to the craft that is to be practiced.

The relevant chambers of skilled crafts provide further information on this benefit. Please contact the relevant Chamber of Crafts for more information.
