promulgation portal.

In addition to the Saarland promulgation portal, the Official Gazette Part I can be viewed in electronic and printed form at the Official Gazette Office of the State Chancellery and at the local courts in Saarland during business hours.

The Official Gazette Office and the local courts provide assistance in retrieving and finding electronic documents and ensure that anyone can obtain printouts or copies of an electronic document at their own expense. On request, the aforementioned offices will provide a certified printout of an electronic document against payment of the costs.

It is also possible to view the Official Gazette Part I during business hours at the Saarland municipalities and have printouts or copies made there at your own expense.

Verfahrensablauf

The Saarland Official Gazette is usually published every week on a Thursday. If a Thursday falls on a public holiday, the corresponding issues are scheduled individually.

The same applies to special editions of the Official Gazette.

In order to guarantee the publication of an advertiser's text on a Thursday, the text must be submitted to the official gazette in the previous week by Wednesday 10.00 a.m. in the previous week and the deadlines for the return of proofs must be met.

Publication texts are to be sent as Word documents to the e-mail address:
amtsblatt@staatskanzlei.saarland.de.

After receipt and processing by the Gazette Office, you will receive the corresponding galley proof and the invoice from our cooperation partner, the printing company Satzweiss.com GmbH, by e-mail. Once the printer's proof has been confirmed and the invoice has been paid, the announcement text will be published in
