Teaser	A broadcasting fee must be paid for each apartment.
Volltext	In the private sector, the broadcasting fee is levied per home and does not depend on the type and number of broadcasting devices. The rule is: one home - one contribution. The broadcasting fee covers all • broadcasting devices, • smartphones and • computers within your home and in the private cars of all residents. If a resident pays the broadcasting fee, this covers the obligation to pay the fee for all persons living in the apartment. This regulation applies to • families • Shared flats • Unmarried couples Are you a student living in a student hall of residence? In this case, it depends on the exact spatial conditions on site. You must pay a broadcasting fee if you have your own entrance to your room directly • from the stairwell or • an anteroom or • from the outside. You do not have to pay a fee if you can only access your room via another apartment. Please note: You must pay an additional broadcasting fee for a second home. People with disabilities and recipients of state benefits

Voraussetzungen	You must register with the Beitragsservice, • if you are of legal age (18 years or older) and • if you or another person are not yet paying the license fee for your home. There is no obligation to pay a contribution for a vacant apartment. The prerequisite is • that it is not occupied by anyone, • there is no tenancy agreement for it and • no person is registered at the residents' registration office.
Kosten	Gebühr: 6,12€ Reduced broadcasting fee: monthly Gebühr: 18,36€ per apartment per month - not reduced You must pay the license fee for three months at a time. The Beitragsservice collects it in the middle of a three-month period.
Verfahrensablauf	You must register your home with the relevant authority. You can do this • informally in writing, • fill out a form or • use an online service. The form is usually available in the municipalities. You can also download it from the Internet. Note: If you have previously paid broadcasting fees, these will automatically be converted to the broadcasting fee. You will usually receive a letter from the Beitragsservice. Tip: If you are no longer liable to
