Teaser	Do you have a mental illness or live with someone with a mental illness? The wide range of help available is designed to help you participate in social life again.
Volltext	The aim of integration assistance is to prevent an impending mental disability or to eliminate or alleviate the consequences of a disability. Your participation in life in the community should be maintained or restored after a long stay in hospital or prolonged isolation. You will receive support in coping with daily life. This includes in particular • housing • finances • Household management • leisure activities • the promotion of private contacts and hobbies, • visits to public authorities (preparation and support), unless this is the task of a legal guardian • Parenting The period of care is generally designed for a longer period of time and is individually tailored. The costs for the services are covered by the responsible integration assistance provider if an individual need for support is identified. Income and assets may be taken into account.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	An informal application to the competent authority is sufficient. They will ask you to use a form and submit further documents.
Voraussetzungen	• the existence of an actual or impending mental disability and
