Verfahrensablauf

The profession of "state-certified food chemist" is regulated in Germany. Anyone who wants to work in the official food and consumer goods monitoring sector and use the job title "state-certified food chemist" needs a permit. In order to obtain this permit, recognition of the foreign qualification is required. Citizens of a member state of the European Union (EU) or a state party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) can submit an application for this.

The application for the recognition procedure is
