Teaser	Would you like to work as an emergency paramedic in Germany? Then please note the formal authorization to use this professional title.
Volltext	The job title "emergency paramedic" is regulated in Germany and is therefore subject to legal regulations. This means that this profession may only be practised with a state permit, which entitles you to use the professional title "emergency paramedic" and to work as such. If you have a comparable foreign qualification and wish to work as an emergency paramedic in Germany, this is possible with the help of a recognition procedure. Accordingly, you apply for a state permit from the competent authority. If you are entitled to immigrate to Germany, the application can also be made from abroad.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Written application for recognition of the professional title • Proof of identity (e.g. identity card or passport) • Certificate of practical work experience at a recognized training rescue station (original or copy) • If applicable, authorization for the acceptance of trainees by the training rescue station if this is not located in Schleswig-Holstein • If applicable, a copy of the notification of the shortening or discontinuation of the practical activity

- Copy of the examination certificate
- Official certificate of good conduct of "document type 0" (for submission to an authority), which is not older than one month when the application is submitted
- Medical certificate that is not older than one month when the application is submitted and confirms that you are physically and mentally fit to work as an emergency paramedic

As a rule, you must submit all documents in the original or as a certified copy and in German. If the documents are written in another language, you may also need a translation by a publicly appointed translator.

Further documents may be required.

Voraussetzungen

- Professional qualification
- Personal aptitude
- Health suitability
- Knowledge of the German language

Kosten

The costs for the procedure depend on the work involved in each case. Your competent authority will determine the exact costs individually and inform you accordingly. There may be additional costs for compensation measures, translations or similar.

Verfahrensablauf

- Submit an application for the recognition procedure to the competent body
 - The competent body checks the documents for equivalence on the basis of the applicable national legal provisions
 - In the case of an application from another EU or EEA country or Switzerland, the office will check whether the foreign qualification is equivalent to the German qualification.
 - The competent body will inform you of the result in writing or electronically by means of a decision (direct recognition, requirement of a compensation measure or rejection).
