Verfahrensablauf

The procedure involves two stages.

In the first stage, interested companies or institutions submit a presentation of their project to the WTSH in the form of a project proposal. It is recommended to seek advice from the WTSH beforehand. A project proposal can be submitted at any time.

Based on the project proposal, the WTSH examines and evaluates whether the project is eligible and worthy of funding. If the assessment is positive, the application is recommended.

On the basis of the project proposal, each network partner submits a formal, complete funding application to the WTSH.

Sachverhalt

This must contain the following points

- a comprehensible presentation of the innovation potential or innovative character of the project (including degree of innovation), the reference to Schleswig-Holstein's fields of specialization with a focus on the needs of the regional economy, the expected economic significance for sustainable value creation and feasibility and the contribution to the cross-sectional objectives and indicators;
- a presentation of the coherence of the project with the objectives and approaches of RIS3.SH (Regional Innovation Strategy Schleswig-Holstein);
- verifiable research to demonstrate the unique character of the project and the novelty of the knowledge, product, process or service; the WTSH can have the presentations reviewed externally if required;
- an assessment of the prospects of success on the market and the potential impact on the economy as well as exploitation plans;
- a fundamental technology impact assessment and an assessment of the effects of implementation on global, societal, economic, social and ecological aspects can be commissioned by the WTSH from an external expert if required;
- If necessary, a separate calculation between the project sponsor's economic and non-economic activities (when funding facilities for research and knowledge dissemination, the costs for financing economic activities and non-economic activities must be clearly separated);
- the submission of a work plan;
- the presentation of the applicant's competence to carry out the project;
- Cooperation agreements (in the case of a collaborative project, effective cooperation within the meaning of Article 2(90) of the GBER must be defined in writing by an agreement between all partners in the form of a cooperation agreement);
- a description of the sustainability of the funding beyond the end of the funding period, including the intended future prospects.
