Teaser	With the Pact for Healthcare and Nursing Professions (GuP Pact), a new working structure was established in order to reduce the shortage of skilled workers in the healthcare and nursing professions as efficiently as possible and to be able to cover the increasing demand for personnel.
Volltext	The shortage of skilled workers in Schleswig-Holstein poses ever greater challenges for stakeholders and institutions in healthcare and nursing. With the GuP Pact, a new interdisciplinary working structure has been established to actively counteract the shortage of skilled workers in the healthcare and nursing professions. The main focus will be on the following topics • Creation of a data basis • Education and training (academic and non-academic) • Securing skilled workers • Distribution of tasks • Equal education and opportunities • Recognition of foreign qualifications • Professional exchange in fair cooperation Within the framework of working groups, whose composition is task-related in each case, specific problems with clear objectives are to be dealt with, which were previously worked out in the joint discussion. The pact is part of the Skilled Workers Initiative Schleswig-Holstein (FI.SH), which is based at the
