Teaser	Anyone wishing to place or broker bets on public horse races as a bookmaker requires a license.
Volltext	If you want to place or broker bets on public horse races on a commercial basis as a bookmaker, you need a license. The license is issued for • the location where the bets are accepted or brokered, • for you as the responsible bookmaker and • for the persons you use to place and broker the bets. The license may be granted subject to time limits and conditions. A security deposit must also be provided.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Police clearance certificate for submission to an authority in accordance with Section 30 (5) BZRG (not older than three months) from the acting person(s), • Extract from the central trade register for submission to an authority in accordance with Section 150 (5) GewO, • Copy of identity card (front and back with clearly recognizable picture), • Proof of at least two years of practical experience in the bookmaking industry as a bookmaker's assistant to a licensed bookmaker. The applicant may also provide proof of professional aptitude by other means; in this case, a statement from the German Bookmakers Association must be obtained.
