Teaser	You require a permit for the import, transit and in some cases also for the export of animals or goods that may be carriers of infectious agents.
Volltext	You require a permit for the import, transit and, in individual cases, export and intra-Community movements of animals and animal products in accordance with Section 1 of the Ordinance on the Protection of the Internal Market against Epizootic Diseases (BmTierSSchV) and of goods that may be carriers of infectious agents. This does not apply to animals and goods originating in a third country that are accompanied by a certificate and for which no permit is required. A permit may not be issued if there is a risk of spreading animal diseases. Products and products that can be confused with foodstuffs that do not comply with the laws applicable in Germany, with the exception of • foodstuffs intended exclusively for scientific purposes, for trade fairs, exhibitions or similar events, or • food samples and specimens in small quantities, may not be brought into the country. Their transit

Erforderliche Unterlagen	As certificates must be submitted in some cases, it is recommended that you contact the responsible office in advance.
Voraussetzungen
Kosten	The permit is subject to a fee. The fees are determined by the respective cost or fee schedule. Information on this can be obtained from the official veterinarian or the MELUR.
Verfahrensablauf
Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist	No deadlines need to be observed for the application itself. When handling trade, for example the transportation of livestock, there may be official obligations to notify the partner veterinary authorities in other EU Member States, which the official veterinarian will provide information on.
