Volltext	Once the adoption procedure before the family court has been completed, it is automatically notarised in the register of births. If you require new birth certificates or newcertified printouts from the register of births, you can apply for these. If you have adopted your child abroad, you must apply for notarisation in Germany.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	none If the family court does not send all the necessary documents to the registry office, the registry office can request documents from you.
Voraussetzungen	Your child was born in Germany and you adopted it in Germany.
Kosten	none
Verfahrensablauf	The family court that has granted the adoption sends its decision to the registry office of the place of birth of your adopted child. The registry office completes the register of births and forwards the information to the following registry offices: • the registry office that Birth entries for the child's
