manager, specialist or trainee.

- The intra-company transfer lasts longer than 90 days.
- The Federal Employment Agency has approved the following in accordance with § 39 AufenthG
- You can present an employment contract valid for the duration of the intra-corporate transfer and, if applicable, a letter of secondment.

Kosten

- for the issue of an ICT card: 100 EUR
- for the extension of an ICT-card for a further stay of up to three months: 96 EUR
- for the extension of an ICT-card for a further stay of more than three months: 93 EUR

Verfahrensablauf

Third-country nationals who already hold a residence title under the ICT Directive for an EU member state and are planning a longer stay (over 90 days) in Germany can apply in writing for a separate residence title for this purpose, the Mobiler-ICT card.

Attention: Your application for a Mobiler-ICT card will be rejected if you submit it at the same time as a notification of short-term mobility pursuant to Section 19a of the Residence Act.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Frist

The application for a Mobiler-ICT card can be made • be submitted at least 20 days before entering Germany. In this case, residence and employment in Germany are considered permitted for up to 90 days within 180 days until a decision is made by the foreigners authority. The only prerequisite for this is that the residence title of the other EU member state is still valid. • be applied for after entry into Germany if a notification of short-term mobility has already been received by the Federal Office before entry. In this case, however, the Mobiler-ICT card must be applied for at least 20 days before the end of the short-term mobility stay. In addition, the application may not be submitted at the same time as a short-term mobility notification.
